

Night at the University

It was a typical December day. It was the most unloved time for students - the session. It goes without saying that students begin their days of cramming and analyzing material in the student library. This aspect did not pass by the first-year students: Martin, Lucas, Anna and Magda. They were all first-year students of the Lazarski University on the specialty "business Economics". They decided to prepare for exams in the library because of the availability of material and the desire to spend time together. It was 22:00, and only our heroes and guards were left at the University. Martin was tired of spending a long time reading textbooks on the principles of Economics and decided to diversify his time by going to the vending machine for coffee. After warning his friends, he left the library building humming songs from the latest album "Linkin Park". As he approached the machine, he saw a tall woman in a white coat. "Strange, I've never seen students or University staff dress like this," Martin thought to himself. Martin had a strange feeling of fear, but he couldn't figure out what it was. Having already received a glass of coffee and was about to leave, this woman stood in front of Martin and asked uncertainly, "Miss, how can I help you? The woman said in a rough voice "Where is my son?!"

It was 22:40, and Magda was concerned that Martin had been out of the library for 40 minutes. But her friends didn't share her feelings. "He probably just went for a walk," Anna said. "Go for a walk in one jacket in -20 on the street? -Magda asked rhetorically. "God, you don't know Martin, he's a real thrill - seeker," Lucas said with a grin. "Promise me that in 15 minutes we will go and look for Martin." The friends decided to accept Magda's offer. But I didn't have to wait long - after 5 minutes, the light went out abruptly. "Damn it, I need to finish my paper on microeconomics," Anna said furiously. "Don't worry, I'm going to check the electric machine now," Lucas said. Anna saw that Magda was growing uneasy and decided to stay with her. Lucas switched on the flashlight on his phone and disappeared into the darkness of the hallway. "Magda, what's wrong with you? You look all worried," Anna asked her. "You see, I don't think we're alone here!" - panic replied Magda. "Why do you think that? Lisa tried to calm her down. Their conversation was interrupted by an inhuman scream. A minute later, Lucas burst into the library. He quickly closed the door and looked like he hadn't slept in 4 days. After a minute, he said in a commanding tone "We need to get out of here immediately!" Stop, stop, stop, Lucas, tell us what happened!" asked Anna.....

"Miss, I don't know where your son is," Martin replied. "It's because of you that he left!!!" she said through gritted teeth. "Look, we don't even....." Martin had no time to finish when a woman grabbed him by the throat. And then he realized what was wrong with it - no one would go without shoes and a nightgown in the month of December.

“I was walking down the corridor when I saw Martin lying against the wall. His head was bleeding and he wasn't breathing. I was in a panic trying to figure out what to do when I saw a girl in a white coat standing 15 meters away from me.” - haltingly told Lucas. “I asked her to call an ambulance. And she screamed,” Lucas interrupted abruptly. “What did she scream, Lucas?Magda asked warily. “Get out! This is my home!Lucas said. “ We need to leave immediately!”after these words, they left the library. Walking along the night corridor, they could not believe that this was happening to them. In the corridor, the light turns on abruptly and also abruptly turns off, but the heroes had enough time to realize that a girl in a white coat is standing at the stairs. In the darkness, they heard a sweet female voice. “Can you guys help me find my son?the girl asked. The boys hesitated for a minute, until Anna decided to say “ Yes, of course.” 10 seconds of pause and the children heard a heart-rending cry of “ My son is nowhere!!!”. The guys rushed to run and ran into the office. Lucas closed the door, but he couldn't relax because of the fact that Anna wasn't in the office. “Where Is Anna?Lucas asked, startled. The answer was not long in coming, and ten seconds later, Lucas and Magdalena heard a sound and Anna's heart-rending scream. ” There's no way we can help them, “ Magdalena said through her tears. The guys were sitting in the office on the 2nd floor, when suddenly there were strong blows on the door of the office. Magda and Lukas decided to jump from the window, the 2nd floor and snow should soften the blow. The landing was successful. The boys ran without looking back. After 5 minutes of intensive running, the guys were exhausted. On the street deep night, 70 meters from the University. After 5 minutes, they were approached by an elderly man and asked them to go to his house. “Yeah, she scared you,” the man said. “What? Do you know what happened to us?Lucas asked in surprise. “Yes, it's Walterla”” the man replied calmly. “Who is that again?Magdalena asked in surprise. “ Before the occupation of Poland in 1939, on the site of your University there was a house where a woman Walterla lived with her son. When Warsaw was occupied, soldiers broke into her house. They wanted to take all the valuables out of the house. The son tried to fight back, but he was brutally beaten in the backyard. As said neighbors, after what happened Valterra lost his mind, and every day searched and asked the neighbors where his son is. Later, she was generally suspected of being connected with black magic. Neighbors began to avoid it. After her death, the house was sold to some entrepreneur and now your University stands on the site of her house. Valterra died, but her hatred and despair left in this place. Every first week of December, she shows up at the University at night and takes revenge on absolutely everyone” The story of the man was very shocked by the guys and they could not sleep that night. The murder cases of Martin and Anna were never solved. Lukas and Magdalena were left with severe psychological injuries. Lucas can't become a regular at psychiatrists, and Anna can't be alone even in supermarkets. The children's lives began to improve until one day. One night, Lucas and Magda were walking in the Park. The Park was dead silent. They enjoyed the silence until the abrupt question " Guys, where is my son? "Never stay at the University overnight!