

Lazarski University
Faculty of Law and Administration

Syllabus

Course name	International Criminal Law
Leading faculty	Faculty of Law and Administration
Field of study	Law in International Transactions
Course code
Course status	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> obligatory	<input type="checkbox"/> additional training	<input type="checkbox"/> languages
	<input type="checkbox"/> field-related	<input type="checkbox"/> specialist	<input type="checkbox"/> other
Semester	Winter
Recommended year and term	II year/III sem
Delivery type and contact hours for each type	Full-time	Extramural	e-learning
	x
Course purpose and objectives	This course will serve as an introduction to students by discussing fundamental concepts of International Criminal Law. It will introduce students to the history of international criminal law, sources of international criminal law, International criminal courts and tribunals
Learning outcomes	Having completed this module student:
Knowledge:	has advanced knowledge and an in-depth understanding of the principles of national, international and European laws, as well as methods and theories explaining the complex relationships between them;- KW_01
	knows and understands the sources of law and fundamental principles and rules of interpretation of laws and legal references, with particular emphasis on the sources of law used in international relations – KW_06
Skills:	can adequately communicate with the environment using legal terminology – KU_04
	can correctly use the knowledge of normative systems, specific legal norms and rules (including the rules of interpretation), as well as professional and moral rules to solve tasks related to international relations - KU_06 can use the acquired knowledge in the field of law, including the achievements of doctrine and jurisprudence to solve dilemmas occurring in international relations – KU_07 can use the principles of logical thinking, interpret legal provisions and rules applicable in international relations to make the right choices and optimal and legal solutions at the same time – KU_09

Social competence:	is prepared to assess the acquired knowledge and received information critically through self-assessment of their competences, being aware of the need to raise the level of their knowledge and skills, and understanding the need for continuous professional training and personal development; sets the direction of their development – KK_01 is prepared to recognise the importance of knowledge in solving cognitive and practical problems, and to consult experts in the event they encounter difficulties in solving a problem on their own – KK_04
Course description <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Notion and General Features of the International Criminal Law</li> <li>2. History of International Criminal Law</li> <li>3. Sources of the International Criminal Law</li> <li>4. International Criminal Law and National Legal Systems</li> <li>5. Criminal Jurisdiction of States. Immunities</li> <li>6. Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters and Extradition</li> <li>7. International Criminal Justice. International Criminal Courts and Tribunals</li> <li>8. International Criminal Court</li> <li>9. Individual Criminal Responsibility in International Criminal Law</li> <li>10. War Crimes</li> <li>11. Crimes against Humanity</li> <li>12. Genocide</li> <li>13. Crime of Agression</li> </ol>
Course language	<input type="checkbox"/> Polish <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> English <input type="checkbox"/> Other ...
Entry requirements
ECTS credits	7
Reading list	Robert Cryer, An Introduction to International Criminal Law (Cambridge University Press 2019)
Additional reading list
Does the work meet the requirements of the original work of authorship that is within the meaning of the Act of 4 February 1994 on Copyright and Related Rights (Journal of Laws of 2006, No. 90, item 631, with further amendments)?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No